

The image shows four lamb carcasses hanging vertically from a metal frame in a processing facility. The carcasses are light-colored and appear to be in various stages of preparation. A white label is attached to the central metal frame. The background consists of a white corrugated metal wall and a metal shelving unit with some boxes and plastic bags on it.

Lamb Carcasses
Placing

Class 10