

Course Title

ANS 6040 Concepts in Applied Ethology (3 credits)

Course Instructor and Office Hours

Emily Miller-Cushon, Ph.D.

Office: Animal Sciences – Bldg 499, Room 104E

Email: emillerc@ufl.edu

Phone: (352) 448-3748

Office hours – by appointment.

Time and Location

- Class is on Tuesdays from 9:30 – 12:30 (periods 3 – 5)
- We will meet in Bldg. 499 (Animal Sciences) room 102 (or via Zoom)

Course Description and Objectives

This course introduces concepts and methods used to conduct research in the field of applied ethology. Course content includes an overview of mechanisms of animal behavior and approaches to measuring and modeling animal behavior. The focus is on developing skills necessary to conduct, analyze, and interpret research in applied ethology.

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Understand basic concepts in the field of applied ethology through discussion of both classic literature and current topics
- Explain and utilize principles of behavior science methodology, such as approaches to experimental design and methods of collecting behavioral data
- Critically analyze journal articles, provide clearly articulated peer review, and effectively communicate ideas in class discussions
- Apply concepts in applied ethology to interdisciplinary problems such as an animal welfare assessment
- Integrate principles covered in class in the development of a conceptual model for a behavior of interest

CLASS STRUCTURE

Course Website on Canvas: Our course website can be found through login to Canvas (<http://elearning.ufl.edu>). I will use Canvas as the primary means to contact you and share announcements. Grades and assignment feedback will also be made available to you. Resources, including the course syllabus, assigned and recommended readings, supplementary references, and lesson material, will be posted in Canvas. The lesson material (slides presented in class, as well as other related material) will be organized by topic within modules.

ANS 6040 Concepts in Applied Ethology – Syllabus Spring 2024

If you are not yet familiar with using CANVAS, please look at the Canvas 'Getting Started' Guide: guides.instructure.com/m/8470. To make sure you are not missing any announcement, please make sure your CANVAS settings are adjusted as follows:

- Go to your general Canvas Settings (upper right corner within CANVAS) > Notifications (left menu bar) > Notification Preferences: here set to "ASAP" for (at least) Announcements.

Lectures and course content: Some classes will be in person and some will be held via Zoom. Access Zoom meetings via the 'Zoom conferencing' tab in Canvas. See here for instructions on how to set-up Zoom through UF: <https://video.ufl.edu/conferencing/zoom/>

Many topics in the class will be explored through in-class discussion and activities related to assigned readings. We will both discuss together as a group and have subgroups focus and present on various topics within the context of class discussions. Certain topics will be presented with the aid of PowerPoint slides, images, and short video clips.

Each topic module links to a discussion thread, where you may post any comments or questions related to the content. I will be monitoring this thread and posting replies, and you are also welcome and encouraged to respond to your classmates' comments. Participation in class discussion (in person and discussion boards) will contribute to your 'Class Participation' grade, as described below.

Communication Expectations and Guidelines

Please reach out via Canvas inbox with any questions or to schedule a meeting. We also encourage you to post questions relating to the lecture material in the corresponding discussion thread to also benefit others who may have the same question.

Please review our course policy on a few topics important related to online security, including online security, written communication guidelines, communication with class instructor and TA, discussion board etiquette, and class etiquette:

<https://ufl.instructure.com/courses/422015/pages/communication-expectations-and-guidelines>

Textbook and required reading:

No formal textbook is required, but the following is recommended as a useful reference and will be referred to throughout the semester:

M. Bateson and P. Martin. (2021) Measuring Behaviour: An Introductory Guide. 4th Edition. Cambridge University Press.

Key articles, including classic papers and review articles, will be used as a basis for classroom discussion on important topics. Assigned readings will be made available electronically. We will discuss the following readings on dates as follows:

- January 16 Duncan, I. J. H. 1995. An applied ethologist looks at the question “Why?”

Sci. 102:10677-10694.

In addition to the core readings, I will assign reading of a number of peer-reviewed journal articles. These will illustrate different examples of behavioral methods that we will explore in class activities and discussion. This course will also require you to read extensively on a behavior topic of your choosing and select journal articles.

ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

All activities will be graded according to rubrics posted on CANVAS. The final grade in the course will be assigned based on numeric average, as described below.

Marking scheme:

A	93-100%	B+	87-89.9%	C+	77-79.9%	D+	67-69.9%	E	< 60%
A-	90-92.9%	B	83-86.9%	C	73-76.9%	D	63-66.9%
		B-	80-82.9%	C-	70-72.9%	D-	60-62.9%

For information on current UF policies for assigning grade points, see

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/grades-grading-policies/>

Activity	Percentage of final grade
Assignment 1: Asking questions about behavior
Oral presentation on Jan 23	20%
Written report due Jan 30
Assignment 2: Answering questions about behavior
Oral presentation on Feb 13 or 20	20%

ANS 6040 Concepts in Applied Ethology – Syllabus Spring 2024

Written report due Feb 27

Assignment 3: Animal welfare journal discussion Journal discussion on Mar 27	15%
Assignment 4: Modeling a behavioral system Oral presentation on Apr 10 or 17 Written summary due Apr 24	35%
Class participation	10%

Assignments: There will be four assignments throughout the term. Three assignments will involve both a written paper and an oral presentation, and one assignment will be a student-led journal discussion. These assignments are described in detail in the following pages of this syllabus. Specific instructions for each assignment and the journal discussion will be discussed in detail in class well in advance of the due date, and numeric rubrics will be shared.

Participation: The grade for participation will be determined based on 1) completion of peer-review requirements (providing feedback for classmates' oral presentations) and 2) class attendance and involvement in activities and discussions (during class sessions and/or on Canvas), according to the rubric posted on Canvas. To achieve a good grade for classroom involvement you should plan to come to class familiar with any assigned reading and prepared to discuss your thoughts. Involvement from all students is a critical component to achieving a well-balanced and productive discussion. On presentation days, be attentive to the other speakers and contribute questions.

Absences, Make-up Work, and Late Assignments:

Please speak with me as soon as possible if you know you will be absent on a presentation day, as we will attempt to reschedule you. Classroom participation is expected and encouraged and regular attendance of lectures is required to obtain a good participation grade.

It is expected that all written assignments will be received on or before the stated deadline. However, if you feel you would benefit from some additional days to complete your assignment, please speak with me at least 24 h before the deadline – I am happy to accommodate extensions for any reason. However, if you miss an assignment deadline without speaking with me, my policy is to deduct 15 % from your grade for every day that the assignment is late.

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments and other work are consistent with university policies that can be found at:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/>

CLASS SCHEDULE

Please note that this schedule is subject to change as we move through the term. Any significant changes will be discussed in class in advance of the lecture. Class dates are color-coded by the Module that they are grouped under: 'Asking questions about animal behavior' is yellow, 'Answering questions about animal behavior' is green, 'Modeling animal behavior' is blue and 'Animal welfare and ethics' is orange.

Week	Class date	Class topic	Deadlines
1	Jan 9	Introduction
2	Jan 16	Asking questions about behavior - Discussion of assigned reading: Tinbergen's questions
3	Jan 23	Assignment 1 – Student presentations and discussion	Oral presentation peer-evaluations
4	Jan 30	Answering questions about behavior - Measuring behavior, experimental design - Activity: Designing an ethogram	Assignment 1 written paper due
5	Feb 6	Answering questions about behavior cont. - Measuring social behavior, designing choice tests - Guest lecture: Dr. Katey Burke
6	Feb 13	Assignment 2 – Student presentations and discussion
7	Feb 20	Assignment 2 – Student presentations and discussion	Oral presentation peer-evaluations
8	Feb 27	Learning and motivation - Discussion: Assessing motivation	Assignment 2 written paper due
9	Mar 6	Conceptual models of behavior - Discussion of assigned reading
	March 13	Spring break
10	Mar 20	Behavior and animal welfare - Discussion of assigned reading: Assessing affective state
11	Mar 27	Ethics in research - Guest speakers from USDA Animal Welfare Information Center to discuss animal use in research
12	Apr 3	Assignment 3 journal discussion	optional submit literature review draft for feedback
13	Apr 11	Assignment 3 journal discussion
14	Apr 17	Assignment 4 – Student presentations and discussion
	Apr 25	Assignment 4 – Student presentations and discussion
	May 2		Assignment 4 written paper due

Academic Honesty

As a student at the University of Florida, you have committed yourself to uphold the Honor Code, which includes the following pledge: “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.” You are expected to exhibit behavior consistent with this commitment to the UF academic community, and on all work submitted for credit at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

It is assumed that you will complete all work independently in each course unless the instructor provides explicit permission for you to collaborate on course tasks (e.g. assignments, papers, quizzes, exams). Furthermore, as part of your obligation to uphold the Honor Code, you should report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. It is your individual responsibility to know and comply with all university policies and procedures regarding academic integrity and the Student Honor Code. Violations of the Honor Code at the University of Florida will not be tolerated. Violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office for consideration of disciplinary action. For more information regarding the Student Honor Code, please see: <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code>.

Software Use

All faculty, staff and students of the university are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against university policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate.

Campus Helping Resources

Students experiencing crises or personal problems that interfere with their general well-being are encouraged to utilize the university’s counseling resources. The Counseling & Wellness Center provides confidential counseling services at no cost for currently enrolled students.

Services for Students with Disabilities

The Disability Resource Center coordinates the needed accommodations of students with disabilities. This includes registering disabilities, recommending academic accommodations within the classroom, accessing special adaptive computer equipment, providing interpretation services and mediating faculty-student disability related issues. Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation

Online Course Evaluation Process

Student assessment of instruction is an important part of efforts to improve teaching and learning. At the end of the semester, students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course using a standard set of university and college criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open for students to complete during the last two or three weeks of the semester; students will be notified of the specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results>.
