Is willing to judge: Market and breeding classes for cattle, swine

Occupation: County Extension Director, University of Florida

Personal Information:

I grew up on a general farm raising registered Durocs, Polled Herefords and commercial cattle. I judged on UF's Livestock Judging Team as an undergrad while living and working at the UF Swine Unit. I taught Agriculture 9 years before becoming the Extension Livestock Agent in Jackson County. I served as a Livestock Agent 16 years and have currently served as Washington County Extension Director for 10 years. I maintain a herd of commercial cattle which I precondition and market through Board Sales and by private treaty.

Judging Experience:

- University of Florida Intercollegiate Livestock Judging Team, 1972
- I have judged local, county and prospect shows for cattle and swine throughout Florida
- I have coached numerous 4H Judging and Meats Teams from 1989-1999.
 - 6 Livestock Teams competed at Nationals in Louisville, KY
 - 4 Livestock Teams competed at Western Nationals in Denver, CO
 - 3 Livestock Teams competed at Keystone International in Harrisburg, PA
 - 1 Livestock Team competed at Southeastern Contest at UT, Knoxville, TN
 - 2 Meats Teams competed at Denver, CO
