

Cornel Peacock

735 South State Hwy. 123 Newton Al. 36352

(H) 334-692-5528 --- (C) 334-714-3384

cornelpeacock@centurytel.net

Is willing to judge: Market and breeding classes for cattle, swine, sheep and goats and Showmanship as well.

Occupation: Ag. Science Teacher

Personal Information:

I grew up raising Santa Gertrudis cattle and have shown market hogs and steers at the county and state levels. I maintain a small herd sows raising show pigs for my son and other students. My 2 daughters and son have shown market lambs and hogs all across the country at major shows as Louisville and the National Western Stock show in Denver winning several national showmanship titles as well as champion lamb honors.

Judging Experience:

- Auburn University judging team
- Have trained several FFA teams at Graceville High School qualifying for state several times.
- I have judged local, county and prospect and market shows for cattle, and swine, sheep and goats as well as breeding classes in those species in, Georgia, Alabama, and Florida.

Education:

Bachelor Degree in Agriculture Education concentrating in Animal Science, 1986
Auburn University, Auburn Alabama

Other:

Have served as Lamb show Chairman of the National Peanut Festival in Dothan Alabama for 22 years and hog committee for 6 years. I have also served on the Alabama state show committees for hogs and sheep. I also served on the Jackson County Florida livestock fair committee for 10 years.