

Robert S. Sand Jr.
14806 NW 89th ST
Alachua Florida 32615
Sand1980@ufl.edu, 352-224-8604

I am willing to judge: Market, Breeding, and Showmanship classes for Beef and Swine.

Occupation: Retail Store Management, Beef Cattle Producer.

Personal Information: I grew up raising and showing beef cattle. I have raised Angus, Hereford, Limousin, Santa Gertrudis, and Club Calves. I have performed numerous clinics for young exhibitors all over the states of Florida and Georgia. I have shown and exhibited cattle all over the country through various internships. I currently maintain a herd of registered Angus females and a select group of cross bred females. I truly enjoy the opportunity to discuss cattle with young people and there parents.

Judging Experience:

American Brahman Breeders Association:

Member: National Approved Judges List. 2006- Present

University of Florida:

Meat Animal Evaluation Team 2006

I have had the opportunity to judge national, regional, local, and prospect shows in 16 different counties in the southeast over the past few years.

Education:

Bachelors of Science Degree in Animal Science (Beef Cattle Production) 2006
University of Florida, Gainesville Florida

Associates of Arts Degree in General Education, 2004
Santa Fe College, Gainesville Florida